PROOF OF CLAIM INSTRUCTIONS

1. Deadline and Location for Sending Proof of Claim

The Proof of Claim must be submitted to the Receiver no later than August 16, 2016 (the “Claims Bar Date”) at:

Creative Capital Receivership
c/o Genovese Joblove & Battista, P.A.,
100 SE 2nd St., 44th Floor
Miami, FL 33131

If you do not submit a completed Proof of Claim by the Claims Bar Date, you will waive your right to make any Claim against the Receivership Estate and any right you may have to participate in a Distribution of funds by the Receiver.

2. Be Accurate and Complete When Preparing the Proof of Claim and Submitting Supporting Documentation.

All information requested in the Proof of Claim form must be provided, and all documents that support your Claim must be submitted to the Receiver.

It is very important to give complete and accurate information in the CLAIMANT INFORMATION section on the bottom left side of Page 1 of the Proof of Claim. If you do not, the Receiver may not be able to verify the information related to your Claim which could cause your Claim to be delayed or disallowed.

You may elect to receive all future notices by e-mail instead of U.S. Mail by checking a box at the bottom of the CLAIMANT INFORMATION section on Page 1. It is highly recommended that you provide an e-mail address to the Receiver even if you choose to continue receiving notices by U.S. Mail.

The information you provide in the Proof of Claim and in documents supporting your Claim is submitted under penalty of perjury. Providing false or misleading information could result in your claim being disallowed. Providing incomplete or inaccurate documentation will delay a resolution of your claim and may result in your Claim being disallowed.

3. Computing Your Total Claim.

In the CLAIM AMOUNT section on the lower right side of Page 1 of the Proof of Claim, you should:

- a. Calculate and write your “Gross Amount Invested” (Line A) and all “Repayments” (Line B).
- b. Calculate your Total Claim by subtracting Line B from Line A and write the amount of the Total Claim on Line C.

The amount that will be paid on any Approved Claim will depend on the amount of money available for Distributions and the total amount of Approved Claims. Because the Receiver cannot yet determine either of those amounts, he cannot predict how much you will receive if you submit an Approved Claim. NOTE: it is not expected that you will be paid 100% of your Claim.

4. Supporting Documents.

You must attach to the Proof of Claim form copies of documents showing the basis for your claim (unless you rely on documents previously sent to the Receiver as described below). If documents are not available, attach an explanation why they are not available. The Receiver recommends that you do not send original documents. Documents will not be returned to you.

You may redact or delete any personal identification information more than (1) the last 4 digits of a social-security or taxpayer-ID number; (2) the last 4 digits of an account number; or (3) a person’s birth year. Even if you do not delete that information, the Receiver will not publish any personal information more than those items.

Describe in as much detail as you can the documents you provide to support your Claim. The Receiver will consider the information and documents you submit in determining whether to allow your Claim and the allowed amount of your Claim, if any.

If you have already sent supporting documents to the Receiver, you may rely on those documents by checking the Box on Page 2, Section 2, of the Proof of Claim with the notation: “I am relying on documents I have previously sent to the Receiver. (If you check this box, you do not need to send to the Receiver the same documents you sent before).” You then do not need to re-send the same documents to the Receiver.

You must sign the Proof of Claim even if you have previously sent documents to the Receiver.

5. Signatures and Legal Authority to Submit Claim.

The Proof of Claim must be signed and dated by the Claimant or an authorized representative in the spaces provided on Page 2 of the Proof of Claim. If the Proof of Claim is signed under a power of attorney or court appointment, the documents showing the authority must be provided. You must sign the Proof of Claim even if you have previously sent documents to the Receiver.

6. Review of Claims and Requests for Additional Information or Documents.

The Receiver will review and a Claim will not be approved for payment until it has been verified as accurate by the Receiver. The Receiver may ask you to provide additional information to complete his review of your Claim. It is important that you cooperate with the Receiver and provide any additional information he requests related to your Claim. If you do not provide additional information the Receiver requests (or explain why you cannot provide it), your Claim may be delayed or disallowed.
